21st North America Bangladesh Convention, Kansas

Call for Nomination of FOBANA 2007 Awards (Deadline: July 30)

The 21st FOBANA Convention will be held on August 31st through September 2, 2007 at The Century II Convention Center in Wichita, Kansas. One of the highlights of this convention is the Awards Ceremonies, where a few personalities of Bangladeshi origin or with close ties to Bangladesh are recognized for their achievements in their own field of excellence.

We are soliciting nominations for these awards. The nominees can be from any field, including, but not limited to, science and engineering, entrepreneurship, literary, cultural, humanities, economic and/or social development. Their contributions need not be specific to Bangladesh and/or Bangladeshis and their critical issues of the time, but these will be given priority.

The Letter of Nomination for the FOBANA Awards should include:

(1) A brief biographical capsule (including education, current residence, and professional affiliation) of the nominee;

(2a) The specific achievement deemed worthy of recognition;

and/or

(2b) The general body of work in a particular area;

(3) The full name, address, and professional affiliation of the nominator.

Please send the Letter of Nomination (500 words maximum) in support your nominee, along with evidence of/reference to his/her achievements and contributions (see #2 above) by July 30 to:
